Subject: RE: Draft Contract

Hi Ken

I've passed the below on to DPER, I'll let you know what they say from a pension point of view.

I also asked PSSC to take a quick look, just to get their thoughts on it from a Payroll perspective.

I'll let you know as soon as I hear back from them also.

Regards

Dave

Subject: Draft Contract

Hi Dave,

Attached is a draft contract for a special envoy role John Conlan asked me to pull together. The person we have in mind for the role is an ex-minister and we will be offering them a 2 year contract which will entail circa 50 days work over the 2 year period. John wants the individual paid via the payroll in arrears and this will probably involve us instructing Payroll every quarter on the number of days worked. My question is, should such a role attract a pension in the absence of regular biweekly contributions? If contributions are paid based on the number of days worked, is this workable or do we just remove reference to the pension altogether?

Regards,
Ken
