The Centenarian Bounty is the award made by the President of Ireland to:

(i) People living in Ireland who have reached 100 years
(ii) Irish citizens born on the island of Ireland who have reached 100 years and who are living outside of the State.

People in category (ii) or their representatives should complete this application form.

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY IN BLOCK CAPITALS.

The following supporting documentation is required to confirm the age, identity, place of birth and Irish citizenship of the applicant:

- Applicant’s civil birth certificate and/or Irish passport;
- In cases where an applicant’s surname is different from their surname at birth, please provide a copy of the marriage certificate or other relevant documents;
- Two recent proofs of residency (such as official correspondence addressed to applicant regarding pension, utility bills, nursing home paperwork, etc.) The residency documentation must have been issued within the last 3 months.
- For applicants in the United States of America or applicants who wish to have the Bounty paid through Electronic Funds Transfer, the applicant’s personal bank account details and proof of account must be provided e.g. Correspondence from the bank containing the applicants name, address and bank account number.

All documentation must be original, photocopies will not be accepted.

For United States applicants, the Bounty is paid by way of Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT) into the applicant’s account.

Applicants from all other countries may either:
(a) have the bounty paid into their bank account by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT), or
(b) issued by way of a cheque in local currency made payable to the applicant.

Therefore in advance of any Bounty being awarded, all applicants must confirm that they have a financial account in their own name to which the bounty payment can be lodged.

Officials of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade may seek additional material in order to confirm an applicant’s details and will be happy to discuss with applicants, or their representatives, the type of material that will meet the requirement for supporting documentation.

Completed form and supporting documents should be sent to:
