J.M. Synge Exhibition opens at the Embassy of Ireland, Berlin

On Monday, 19 October, the German-Irish Society of Würzburg and the city of Würzburg are proud to present an exhibition of John Millington Synge's photographs, taken on his travels in Wicklow.

120 years ago in 1894, John Millington Synge studied for several months at the Royal School of Music in Würzburg. The exhibition celebrates city of Würzburg's double partnership with Bray and Co. Wicklow. To celebrate this exhibition and the unique flavour of German-Irish friendship, Würzburg International, the city's international office has organised a tasting of Franconian wine at the opening!

The exhibition, which will run from 19 October to 20 November, is not to be missed and we kindly request you RSVP to:

5 September: Frankfurt Style Award featuring five finalists from Ireland

The poster features a woman in a blue dress holding a colorful, translucent fabric. In the background, there is a silhouette of the Frankfurt skyline with the tower. A logo for the Frankfurt Style Award, featuring an eye, is positioned above the skyline. The text on the poster reads: 'FRANKFURT STYLE AWARD GALA FINALE SHOW PIONEERING DESTINY' and 'The N°1 International Fashion Event in Frankfurt'. The event details are: '5. September 2015, 19.00 Frankfurt Airport, Fraport-Forum'.

On the 5 September, at the Fraport Forum in Frankfurt Airport, the Frankfurt Style Award will take place showcasing a wealth of fashion talent from accross the world.

60 of the world's most talented young designers have qualified for the Frankfurt Style Award and the Gala Finale show gives the young designers an opportunity to premiere their designs on an international stage.

At this year's Gala Finale Show, five Students from Ireland will be presenting their designs. The five talented students are Arvydas Zapivalovas, Moa Ostermark, Jenny Cleary (all three from Griffith College Dublin), Siu-Hong Mok (Dublin Institute of Design), and Cija Lamb (Mallow College of Design and Tailoring Cork).

With a record number of over 325 applications, the Frankfurt Style Award are delighted that the Irish designers will showcase their work under this year's theme of Pioneering Destiny (in the categories Blue Revolution, Ecological Green und Over the Rainbow).

Pre-Sale Tickets for the Gala Finale Show are currently available. For anyone who wishes to support exciting fashion talent and experience Frankfurt's No.1 Fashion Event, follow the link below to secure your ticket:

8-9 September: Darragh McLoughlin to perform at Berlin's first Circus Festival

Image copyright of Toke Hagen, Anni Küpper, Michele Vindimian

Darragh McLoughlin is a contemporary circus performer/creator from Cork who founded Squarehead Productions in 2012 with the aim of bringing together different contemporary artistic practices.

From 8-9 September, The Whistle will be at Berlin Circus Festival taking the audience on a unique journey based on the simple but brilliant premise of a performer onstage with a whistle. When he blows it, the audience closes their eyes, when he blows it again, they open them.

With McLoughlin, the audience can expect an evening of entertainment from a master of his trade who will invite the audience to participate in an unique and engaging creative process.

The German Translation of David Slattery's book "How to be Irish" hits bookshelves and online this Autumn

What makes someone Irish?

David Slattery shows us which particularities and idiosyncrasies that differentiate the Irish from our neighbours.

With expertise and a lot of humour, Slattery takes us through the rules of the Irish.

Who will be invited to an Irish funeral, and if so, why? Why is there always at least 200 people invited to every wedding? What are the main rules when visiting an Irish pub?

The German translation (by Dr. Gabriele Haefs) of "How to be Irish" is now available from btb publishers in hardback.

For further information about the book, please log on to www.btb-verlag.de/presse
