29502762	Refused	F: Finances - evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete: Paragraph 17.2 of the Policy Document states that where the sponsor is an Irish Citizen that: 'An Irish citizen, in order to sponsor an immediate family member, must not have been totally or predominantly reliant on benefits from the Irish State for a continuous period in excess of 2 years immediately prior to the application and must over the three year period prior to application have earned a cumulative gross income over and above any State benefits of not less than €40k'. Conclusion: your application does not satisfy the criteria as set out in paragraph 17.2 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA family Reunification. FM: There is no automatic right for non-EEA nationals who are (extended) family members of Irish citizens to migrate on a long-term basis to Ireland. ID: Stated marriage is not deemed sufficient for immigration\visa purposes - For Irish immigration purposes, to be legally entitled to marry, both of you must fulfil a number of requirements at the time the marriage takes place. One of those is that both parties must be over the age of 18. In this case, you were 17 years old at the time of marriage.

As outlined in section 15.1 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification the eligibility requirement for spouse is as follows:

“The spouse, civil partner or de facto partner must be at least 18 years of age at the time of their application for family reunification. Consideration was given to adopting a higher minimum age of 21 years as a means of discouraging forced marriages or unions where the youth of one party rendered them vulnerable. However, it has been decided for the present to retain the current position whereby the age threshold for spousal family reunification is the same as applies in respect of eligibility to marry within the State. While it is possible in many jurisdictions to marry at a younger age and a court dispensation may in certain circumstances be obtained within this State to set aside the age limit for one or both parties, it is not intended to follow this through in terms of family reunification. The 18 year limit will be maintained.”

Section 31(1) of the Family Law Act 1995 (revised to 18 January 2016) states as follows:

31.—(1)(a) (i) A marriage solemnised, after the commencement of this section, between persons either of whom is under the age of 18 years shall not be valid in law.
(ii) Subparagraph (i) applies to any marriage solemnised—
(I) in the State, irrespective of where the spouses or either of them are or is ordinarily resident, or
(II) outside the State, if at the time of the solemnisation of the marriage, the spouses or either of them are or is ordinarily resident in the State.
(b) Paragraph (a) does not apply if exemption from it was granted under section 33 before the marriage concerned.
(c) The requirement in relation to marriage arising by virtue of paragraph (a) is hereby declared to be a substantive requirement for marriage.

As a result of the Family Law Act, 1995 and having due regard to the eligibility criteria as set out in section 15.1 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification, we are refusing this application.

PF: The granting of the visa may result in a cost to public funds - your application does not satisfy the criteria as set out in paragraph 17.2 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA family Reunification.

PR: The granting of the visa may result in a cost to public resources - your application does not satisfy the criteria as set out in paragraph 17.2 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA family Reunification.

In conclusion this application is refused on the basis that it fails to meet the requirements of the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification.

In particular that it fails to meet the eligibility criteria for a D-Join Spouse Visa or to establish that any special circumstances exist that would warrant an exception in this case.

No rights under Article 8 of ECHR and Article 41 of the Constitution are engaged as the veracity of the marriage is not accepted and is also deemed insufficient for immigration purposes.
