Information available to the visa officer concerning your immigration history has diminished the overall credibility of your application. The visa officer has considered the evidence of ties to your country of ordinary residence submitted, however this has not been sufficient to satisfy the visa officer, on the balance of probabilities, that you are likely to observe the conditions of any visa granted. 2. Information available to the visa office concerning your UK immigration history, along with your personal, economic and family circumstances, has diminished the overall credibility of your application. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that you will observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the maintenance of the integrity of the Common Travel Area. 3. The visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed. The visa officer is not satisfied that the sole purpose of your intended travel to Ireland is genuine tourism. As such, the visa officer is not satisfied that you will observe the conditions of any visa granted, with particular regard to the maintenance of the integrity of the Common Travel Area.
