addition to course fees for each of those year. Alternatively a secure and demonstrated source of funds to cover these amounts must be shown. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete
- The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has been examined, however the Visa Officer is not satisfied that the finances shown are sufficient for the purposes of the visa.
- No personal financial documentation has been submitted in respect of the sponsor. As per the INIS website you must submit an up to date six month personal bank statement in respect of your sponsor. Any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.
- Taking into consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application, you have not demonstrated that you have sufficient finances to support your stay for the duration of your proposed course in Ireland. As per the INIS website you must demonstrate: "that you and/or your sponsor(s) have ready access to at least €7,000 for each subsequent year of your studies in addition to course fees for each of those years." Alternatively a secure and demonstrated source of funds to cover these amounts must be shown. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

R:- No clear link to reference has been shown
You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

SP:- Gaps in education or employment not accounted for.
The applicant has not sufficiently explained to the Visa Officer the gaps in their educational/employment career. As per the INIS website, you must account for any gaps in your education or career

OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed.
The Visa Officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed course of study, your income, and the reason provided for the course. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the course adequately justifies the potential cost when compared to income and available finances.

SP:- Previous educational or employment background is at odds with course applied for.
The applicant has not sufficiently set out to the Visa Officer why they have chosen this particular course given your previous employment or educational history. As per the INIS website where the course you now wish to study does not naturally follow on or relate to your educational or employment history, you must give reasons, supported by documentary evidence (where available), for this change.
