Alternatively a secure and demonstrated source of funds to cover these amounts must be shown. F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Taking into consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application, you have not demonstrated that you have sufficient finances to support your stay for the duration of your proposed course in Ireland. As per the ISD website you must demonstrate: "that you and/or your sponsor(s) have ready access to at least €7,000 for each subsequent year of your studies in addition to course fees for each of those years." Alternatively a secure and demonstrated source of funds to cover these amounts must be shown.- The average balance of your sponsors account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your course. The visa officer has also considered your sponsor's average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in their home country compared with the potential cost of this course and has concluded that their financial situation is unlikely to allow them to support you in Ireland while maintaining their family in their home country.- OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- The Visa Officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed course of study, your income and that of your sponsor over a period of 6 months, and the reason provided for the course. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the course adequately justifies the potential cost when compared to income and available finances.
