Application Decisions:

Decisions for period from 19/09/2022 to 23/09/2022

Classification: DJELR

Mission: London

Insufficient documentation submitted in support of the application and / or the quality of supporting documentation submitted in the following areas has diminished the overall strength of your application;

- Financial documents
- Employment documents
- Evidence of applicant's circumstances
- Application letter and undertaking
- Not all documents are translated
- Evidence accounting for gaps in educational/employment history

F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete

- The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has been examined, however the Visa Officer is not satisfied that the finances shown are sufficient for the purposes of the visa.
- Insufficient evidence provided to account for source of finances, taking into consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application. The Visa Officer has taken into consideration your / your financial sponsor's level of earnings, employment documentation, and economic circumstances insofar as they have been made known. As per the ISD website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.
- The majority of the money available to you has been lodged, in lump sums, within the past 6 months and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided. As per the ISD website any large or irregular lodgements must be fully explained.
- You have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of income. As per the ISD website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

SP:- Gaps in education or employment not accounted for.

The applicant has not sufficiently explained to the Visa Officer the gaps in their educational/employment career. As per the ISD website, you must account for any gaps in your education or career

INCO – Inconsistencies e.g. contradictions in the information supplied.

Inconsistencies in the information supplied in support of your application have been noted by the visa officer and have diminished the overall strength of your application.

- Vehicle documents
- Source of income earnings and finance
- Documents and information supplied

Observe the Conditions

OC:- Condition - The applicant may overstay following proposed visit.

The Visa Officer is not yet satisfied, based on the supporting documentation submitted, that the applicant has demonstrated that the primary reason for coming to Ireland is for the purposes of study. This should be fully addressed in any appeal.

SP:- Previous educational or employment background is at odds with course applied for.

The applicant has not sufficiently set out to the Visa Officer why they have chosen this particular course given your previous employment or educational history. As per the INIS website where the course you now wish to study does not naturally follow on or relate to your educational or employment history, you must give reasons, supported by documentary evidence (where available), for this change.

Application Decisions:

Decisions for period from 19/09/2022 to 23/09/2022

Classification: DJELR

Mission: London

- Evidence accounting for gaps in educational/employment history

F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete

- The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has been examined, however the Visa Officer is not satisfied that the finances shown are sufficient for the purposes of the visa.

- No personal financial documentation has been submitted in respect of the applicant. As per the ISD website you must submit an up to date six month personal bank statement and any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained. You must submit this whether you are covering the costs of your studies or not.

- Insufficient personal financial documentation has been submitted in respect of the sponsor. As per the ISD website you must submit an up to date six month personal bank statement in respect of your sponsor. Any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

- Insufficient evidence provided to account for source of finances, taking into consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application. The Visa Officer has taken into consideration your / your financial sponsor's level of earnings, employment documentation, and economic circumstances insofar as they have been made known. As per the ISD website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

- The majority of the money available to you has been lodged, in lump sums, within the past 6 months and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided. As per the ISD website any large or irregular lodgements must be fully explained.

- You / your sponsor have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of income. As per the ISD website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

R:- No clear link to reference has been shown

You have failed to demonstrate a clear link between you and your sponsor. It is not clear to the visa officer how you are known to your sponsor, or why your sponsor has decided to provide you with the finances stated.

SP:- Gaps in education or employment not accounted for.

The applicant has not sufficiently explained to the Visa Officer the gaps in their educational/employment career. As per the ISD website, you must account for any gaps in your education or career

INCO – Inconsistencies e.g. contradictions in the information supplied.

Inconsistencies in the information supplied in support of your application have been noted by the visa officer and have diminished the overall strength of your application.

- Employment documents

- Bank Statement

- Source of income earnings and finance

- Documents and information supplied

Observe the Conditions

OC:- Condition - The applicant may overstay following proposed visit.

The Visa Officer is not yet satisfied, based on the supporting documentation submitted, that the applicant has demonstrated that the primary reason for coming to Ireland is for the purposes of study. This should be fully addressed in any appeal.

		SP:- Previous educational or employment background is at odds with course applied for. The applicant has not sufficiently set out to the Visa Officer why they have chosen this particular course given your previous employment or educational history. As per the INIS website where the course you now wish to study does not naturally follow on or relate to your educational or employment history, you must give reasons, supported by documentary evidence (where available), for this change. The ISD website has all of the information you will need to make an application for a visa.
