

INFORMATION BOOKLET FOR CANDIDATES

CLERICAL POSITIONS

CONSULAR SERVICES TEAM

EMBASSY OF IRELAND, LONDON

1. INTRODUCTION

The Embassy of Ireland, London requires a small number of clerical staff in the Consular Services administration and customer care teams as follows:

- Temporary clerical officer(s) for a period of approximately 16 weeks between April 2018 and September/October 2018 to fill a small number of seasonal vacancies.
- Successful candidates will be placed on a panel from which other clerical vacancies occurring within the next 12 months may be filled.

Candidates who wish to be considered must be available for the full duration of the contract offered. Extended holiday plans during this period may affect your possible assignment.

Candidates should note that it is not envisaged that these positions will lead to permanent positions.

2. THE ROLE

Successful candidates will be assigned to either the Passport Office or the Foreign Births Registration (FBR) Section, of the Embassy of Ireland. Both sections come within the area Consular Services provided by the Embassy.

The Passport Office deals with passport applications sent by post or submitted at the public counter. The FBR Section deals with applications for Irish citizenship through descent. Further information on both these areas is available on www.embassyofireland.co.uk.

Clerical staff assigned to either offices will be expected to possess good office/clerical/ICT skills and to be well organised and attentive to detail. Staff are expected to work well under pressure; providing a high quality, professional, courteous and efficient service in a high-profile customer facing role.

Successful candidates may be assigned to work in some or all of the following areas:

- Documentation: where passport applications are opened and scanned or registered onto the computer system.
- Entitlement: where applications are checked for passport or foreign birth registration entitlement.
- Public Office: where passport applications may be accepted; where advice is given to applicants regarding entitlement, the status of applications, and general passport or FBR enquiries.
- Customer Care: advice to customers concerning the status of their applications or on general passport or FBR matters.
- Dispatch: dealing with issuing of passports application forms; dispatch of passports or FBR certifications and return of documentation to customers.
- Postal duties: sorting, franking and dispatching post.

If appointed, tasks may include, but are not limited to:

- General clerical duties e.g. filing, photocopying, handling telephone calls, dealing with e-mails, sending application forms, etc;

- Supporting line-managers and colleagues;
- Working as part of a team in delivering consular services related services;
- Dealing with the public/customers e.g. responding to queries and providing information;
- Use of Information Technology e.g. word processing, spreadsheets, database, e-mail and internet.

3. ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must satisfy all criteria to be eligible to enter this competition:
