Consequently the Visa Officer is not satisfied that you have access to sufficient monies to fund your proposed period of study in Ireland. F: - Source of funds used to support application not adequately accounted for, including several fixed deposits for which no source has been provided. In this regard, it is noted that the applicant plans to rely entirely on access to said fixed deposits over the course of his proposed period of study in Ireland. However, absent the provision of the sources of same, allied to the fact that the applicant's primary sponsor has access to no more than INR 40,000 liquid funds, serious doubts must attach to the suggestion that the applicant is in a sufficiently robust financial position to provide for himself over the course of his proposed period of study.

While it is noted that one of your brothers appears to have access to significant means, no mention of his personal circumstances in terms of personal or familial outlay has been made. Further, it would appear that the extended family may be funded by his income, to include the two other sponsors named on the application form, who would appear to lack any visible forms of income as well as being listed as having meagre savings. It is the view of the Visa Officer, therefore, that you have not satisfied the criteria requiring you to establish access to sufficient means to support yourself over the course of your proposed period of study. 43726112 Approved Study 43730042 Approved Atypical worker 43730102 Approved Business	43712822	Approved	Study
