43472492	Approved	Visit (Tourist)
43486142	Refused	F: - Financial evidence submitted is insufficient and does not clearly show how you could fund the tuition/and or yourself during your course. In this regard, insufficient evidence of the source of both the applicant's sponsor's savings and fixed deposit account have been provided. It is noted in particular that the applicant's sponsor has submitted evidence of a finalised ITR for the 2019-2020 year, replete with official Government stamp, to the effect that he earned in the region of 3 lakhs per annum (roughly €3,500) over the course of last year. No such finalised ITR has been submitted, as required, in respect of any other years, thereby raising a question as to the bona fides of the information submitted. F: - Financial evidence submitted is insufficient and does not clearly show how you could fund the tuition/and or yourself during your course. The source of the fixed deposit in his mother's name, upon which the applicant is said to be planning to rely on over the course of his proposed period of study in Ireland, is his father's savings account, the source of which in turn is not easily apparent. Further, there appears to be a lack of evidence as to how the applicant's mother's salary figure of INR6,02,562 has been arrived at. Given that the applicant plans to rely on access to this amount over the course of his proposed period of study, further doubts arise as to the applicants financial capacity. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, and is not satisfied that you are in a financially adequate position to support your complete period of study in Ireland. The visa officer is not satisfied that you have demonstrated that you have access to the finances required to pay for the course and support yourself during your stay in Ireland, as required.

43541292	Refused	CP:- Need to undertake the course in this State not demonstrated or warranted. In this respect, the applicant wishes to undertake a course of study in the general field of Health Service delivery. This despite the fact that he has previously studied Sport Science in the UK, having completed that particular course in 2017. There appears to be an absence of any natural progression therefore, between the applicant's academic history and his current proposed course of study. Serious doubts must therefore attach to the applicant's bona fides in this respect. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, including additional financial documentation, and is not satisfied that your sponsors are in a financially adequate position to support your study in Ireland. Consequently the Visa Officer is not satisfied that you have access to sufficient monies to fund your proposed period of study in Ireland. In particular, it is noted that the applicant proposes to fund his period of study by way of sponsorship based on the drawdown of a significant loan on the part of his father who is said to be an exporter of carpets. However, there appears to be an absence of any financial documentation which would suggest a capability to repay the loan on the part of the applicant's sponsor. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, and is not satisfied that you are in a financially adequate position to support your complete period of study in Ireland. The visa officer is not satisfied that you have demonstrated that you have access to the finances required to pay for the course and support yourself during your stay in Ireland, as required

43666042	Refused	F: - source of funds used to pay tuition to date not adequately accounted for. In this regard, no evidence to explain the origin of funds contained in a number of fixed deposit accounts, said to belong to the applicant's sponsors, has been submitted. Further, no evidence of a familial or other manner of relationship between the applicant and his supposed sponsors has been submitted. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, and is not satisfied that you are in a financially adequate position to support your complete period of study in Ireland. The visa officer is not satisfied that you have demonstrated that you have access to the finances required to pay for the course and support yourself during your stay in Ireland, as required.
43666582	Refused	F: - Financial evidence submitted is insufficient and does not clearly show how you could fund the tuition/and or yourself during your course. In this regard, it is noted that the applicant's primary sponsor is his father who is said to have access to a sum of INR 19,837,742 (roughly €26,000) in his savings account. However, on 11/12/2019, the balance in his savings account was just INR 37,742.01 (in the region of €350). Since then, four significant deposits have been made, the sources of which are unclear. Serious doubts must therefore attach to the suggestion that the applicant's primary sponsor, whose yearly income is said to be in the region of 4 lakhs (in the region of €4,500), is in a position to fund his son to the tune of €26,000 over the course of his proposed period of study in Ireland. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, and is not satisfied that you are in a financially adequate position to support your complete period of study in Ireland.

43747682	Refused	ID:- Authenticity of information supplied - as a result of document and background checks carried out by this office, the Visa Officer is satisfied that you have submitted fraudulent information in support of your application. In this regard, it is noted that you have stated on your application form that you are single. Information available to the Visa office would suggest that you are married and that your spouse has also applied to undertake the same course at Dublin Business School, as well as also having sought to rely on the same loan from Andhra Bank as a means to demonstrate financial capacity to undertake a course of study in Ireland. This is a clear attempt to circumvent the immigration process on the part of the applicant. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, and is not satisfied that you are in a financially adequate position to support your complete period of study in Ireland. The visa officer is not satisfied that you have demonstrated that you have access to the finances required to pay for the course and support yourself during your stay in Ireland, as required. In this regard, it is noted that both the applicant and his wife have stated their intent to rely on the same loan amount over the course of separate periods of study. This is clearly an attempt on the part of the applicant to misrepresent their financial status with a view to obtaining a visa by deception.
