43026552	Refused	F: - source of funds used to support application not adequately accounted for, including several recent large deposits out of proportion with previous account activity/claimed income levels. In this regard, the applicant is seeking to rely on a number of sponsors, each of whom are promising to provide the applicant with significant sums of cash over the course of her proposed period of study in Ireland. However, a cursory examination of the bank accounts involved reveal that at least two of the accounts in question had balances totalling as little as NPR 18,000 (€140) and NPR 60,000 (€466) as late as May/June 2019 last. Since then significant amounts have been deposited in each with the sources of such deposits remaining largely unaccounted for. This raises serious doubts as to the bona fides of the financial aspect of the application with, in particular, serious doubts therefore, attaching to the ability of the applicant to fund her proposed period of study in Ireland. F: - source of funds used to pay tuition to date not adequately accounted for. See above. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, including additional financial documentation, and is not satisfied that the applicant's sponsors are in a financially adequate position to support your study in Ireland. Consequently the Visa Officer is not satisfied that you have access to sufficient monies to fund your proposed period of study in Ireland. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, and is not satisfied that the applicant themselves are in a financially adequate position to support a complete period of study in Ireland. In this regard, the visa officer is not satisfied that the applicant has demonstrated that access to the finances required to pay for and support a course of study in Ireland, as required.

43807332	Refused	F: - Financial evidence submitted is insufficient and does not clearly show how the applicant could fund the tuition/and or himself during his course. Given the fact that the applicant claims to be a registered nurse, currently employed as same in Sri Lanka, it is therefore difficult to see how such significant investment in this course in Ireland would contribute to increasing his employment prospects and income in his home country. F: - source of funds used to pay tuition to date not adequately accounted for. In this regard, it is noted that the applicant's primary source of funding is a lump sum in the sum of LKR 2,600,000 (roughly €12,000) provided to him by his father. The source of this money is unclear and no financial documentation beyond the applicant's own bank account evidencing receipt of the funds has been provided. F: - Finances: - the Visa Officer has examined and considered all the financial evidence submitted, and is not satisfied that the applicant is in a financially adequate position to support completion of his proposed period of study in Ireland. The visa officer is not satisfied that you the applicant has demonstrated that he has has access to the finances required to pay for the course or that he is in a position to support himself during his stay in Ireland, as required.
