Applicant states that she believed that once her Sponsor's 'legal status was resolved that I could come and reside with him in Ireland as his partner I travelled to meet him without a visa (as Albanian nationals do not require a visa for the Schengen zone) on 14/11/19. Unfortunately I was refused leave to enter Ireland as we were not correct in our assumption I could enter as his partner'. Applicant states this was due to not being aware that she was visa required for Ireland. This is inconsistent with the applicant having previously applied for and refused a visit visa to Ireland in Aug 2019. Furthermore the visa officer notes that while the applicant was refused entry to the State in Nov 2019 due to not having the required visa as an Albanian national, it was ultimately based on the discovery by the immigration officer that she had travelled to the State using a fraudulent Romanian identity card. It is further noted that during the encounter with the immigration officer Applicant does not appear to have disclosed that their partner, now spouse, was residing in Ireland. PF/PR:- The granting of the visa may result in a cost to public funds and/or resources. - While it is noted that Sponsor has reached the threshold for income, it is noted with concern that there are a number of large sum deposits into Sponsor's account which are not explained. These deposits make up a large portion of Sponsor's savings. The Visa Officer has reasonable concerns, based on the documentation submitted in the application, that the granting of a visa to the applicant to reside in the State could result in costs to the State. RH:- Relationship History As per Section 5.3 of the Policy Document on Non-EEA Family Reunification the onus of proof as to the genuineness of the family relationship rests squarely with the applicant and sponsor. This has not been sufficiently addressed in the application. - It is noted that Sponsor was previously married. No evidence of this marriage or subsequent divorce has been provided. Insufficient documentary evidence has been provided in that regard. consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application. The Visa Officer has taken into consideration your / your financial sponsor's level of earnings, employment documentation, and economic circumstances insofar as they have been made known. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, and the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

- Taking into consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application, you have not demonstrated that you have sufficient finances to support your stay for the duration of your proposed course in Ireland. As per the INIS website you must demonstrate: "that you and/or your sponsor have ready access to at least €7,000 for each subsequent year of your studies in addition to course fees for each of those years." Alternatively a secure and demonstrated source of funds to cover these amounts must be shown. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

- The majority of the money available to you has been lodged, in lump sums, within the past 6 months and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements must be fully explained.

- The average balance of your sponsors account (income minus outgoings) over the past 6 months has been considered by the visa officer and has not been deemed sufficient to cover the potential cost of your course. The visa officer has also considered your sponsor's average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in their home country compared with the potential cost of this course and has concluded that their financial situation is unlikely to allow them to support you in Ireland while maintaining their family in their home country.

- You and your sponsor have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of income. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, and the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

INCO – Inconsistencies e.g. contradictions in the information supplied. Inconsistencies in the information supplied in support of your application have been noted by the visa officer and have diminished the overall strength of your application.

- Late birth and Nadra registrations.
- No evidence of bond submitted.

OC: - Condition - The applicant may overstay following proposed visit. The Visa Officer is not yet satisfied, based on the supporting documentation submitted, that the applicant has demonstrated that the primary reason for coming to Ireland is for the purposes of study. This should be fully addressed in any appeal.

OC: - Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed.

- Evidence of link to sponsor. Sponsor's ID not submitted
- While you have submitted a letter from Griffith college showing payments received for your course fees, no documentary evidence has been provided to show who paid the fees or from what account they were transferred. Our website clearly states "You must provide a copy of an Electronic Transfer of Funds (ETF) to the Irish Bank of the college, showing details of the beneficiary's name, address, bank details and the same details for sender".

F:- Finances:- evidence provided is deemed insufficient or incomplete

- The financial documentation submitted in support of this visa application has been examined, however the Visa Officer is not satisfied that the finances shown are sufficient for the purposes of the visa.

- The average balance maintained in your account(s) / your sponsor's account(s) over a period spanning at least 6 months immediately prior to the application has not been deemed sufficient.

- Insufficient evidence provided to account for source of finances, taking into consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application. The Visa Officer has taken into consideration your / your financial sponsor's level of earnings, employment documentation, and economic circumstances insofar as they have been made known. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

- Taking into consideration the financial circumstances presented in your application, you have not demonstrated that you have sufficient finances to support your stay for the duration of your proposed course in Ireland. As per the INIS website you must demonstrate: "that you and/or your sponsor(s) have ready access to at least €7,000 for each subsequent year of your studies in addition to course fees for each of those years." Alternatively a secure and demonstrated source of funds to cover these amounts must be shown. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained.

- The majority of the money available to you has been lodged, in lump sums, within the past 6 months and no explanation as to the source of this money has been provided. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements must be fully explained. No documents have been submitted as evidence of your explanation for the lump sum.

OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed.

The Visa Officer has considered the potential cost of the proposed course of study, your income and that of your sponsor over a period of 6 months, and the reason provided for the course. The visa officer is not satisfied that the reason provided for the course adequately justifies the potential cost when compared to income and available finances.

| 45969602 | Refused | IH:- Immigration history of applicant. A review of the applicant's passport and immigration records indicate the applicant has overstayed her permission in Ireland and circumvented Irish Immigration rules by avoiding Irish Immigration Officers. A multi entry visa permits an applicant to travel to Ireland on a number of occasions during the dates shown on their visa, for short trips only. It is not permitted to use this category of visa to bypass immigration rules governing residency in the State i.e. it is not possible to remain in Ireland for a period of 90 days and then seek to re-enter the country for a further period of up to 90 days. A person can be granted up to 90 days (3 months) permission on a short stay visa in Ireland, whereas a UK short-stay visa is valid for a maximum of 180 days (6 months). However, even if an applicant has a UK visa valid for 180 days, once you enter Ireland, a person cannot stay longer than 90 days. The Visa Officer notes the applicant was issued with a 2 year Irish BIVS multi entry visa valid from 24/07/2016 to 23/07/2018. 12/01/2020 (passport page 19 and immigration record refers)

The Visa Officer notes that while checks were being conducted by this office the applicant was contacted regarding her stay in the UK. The applicant informed this office that she travelled straight to London, onto Belfast and then entered the State to visit her daughter on both occasions.

The Visa Officer notes the applicant stayed in Ireland approximately 6 months in 2017, approximately 8 months in 2018 and 8 months in 2019. The Visa Officers notes the applicant entered into Ireland on 06/03/2019 and returned to China on 02/06/2019 and re-entered Ireland approximately a month later using her UK visa by landing in Edinburgh airport on 22/07/2019. The applicant then travelled to Ireland to stay with her daughter and did not return to China until 12/01/2020. While the applicant had a UK visa valid for 180 days, once you enter Ireland, a person cannot stay longer than 90 days.

OB:- Obligations to return to home country have not been deemed sufficient.

OC:- Condition - The applicant may overstay following proposed visit.

OC:- Observe the conditions of the visa - the visa sought is for a specific purpose and duration:- the applicant has not satisfied the visa officer that such conditions would be observed. The Visa Officer notes the applicant landed in Ireland on 07/12/2017 and was granted 90 days in the State expiring on 07/03/2018. The Visa Officer notes the applicant sought to extend this permission which was refused. The Visa Officer notes the applicant then re-entered Ireland from Northern Ireland 2 months later. The Visa Officer notes the applicant stayed 3 months on that occasion returning to China on 03/08/2018. The Visa Officer notes the applicant returned to Ireland 1 month later on 05/09/2018 and remained for another 3 months. It is noted that from 07/12/2017 to 02/12/2018 the applicant was in Ireland over 180 days within that 12 month period. The Visa Officer then notes the applicant entered Ireland on 06/03/2019 and returned to China on 02/06/2019. The Visa Officer notes the applicant then re-entered Ireland through Northern Ireland 1 month later on 22/07/2019 and did not return to China until 12/01/2020. The Visa Officer notes that between 12/01/2019 to 12/01/2020 the applicant was in Ireland over 180 days within that 12 month period of which at one point was over 90 days (22/07/2019 to 12/01/2020). The Visa Officer notes from 07/12/2017 to 12/01/2020 the applicant resided in Ireland more than the applicant's country of origin. A review of the applicant's passport and immigration records indicate the applicant has overstayed her permission in Ireland and repeatedly circumvented Irish Immigration rules by avoiding Irish Immigration Officers. The Visa Officer is not satisfied the applicant will observe the conditions of the visa if granted.

The visa officer has also considered your sponsor's average income over the past 6 months and the cost of living in their home country compared with the potential cost of this course and has concluded that their financial situation is unlikely to allow them to support you in Ireland while maintaining their family in their home country. - You / your sponsor have not provided sufficient evidence as to the source of income. As per the INIS website any large or irregular lodgements (e.g. student loans, lodgement of Savings Certificates, and the sale of a property or any similar type sources) must be fully explained. OC: - Condition - The applicant may overstay following proposed visit. The Visa Officer is not yet satisfied, based on the supporting documentation submitted, that the applicant has demonstrated that the primary reason for coming to Ireland is for the purposes of study. This should be fully addressed in any appeal. SP: - Previous educational or employment background is at odds with course applied for. The applicant has not sufficiently set out to the Visa Officer why they have chosen this particular course given your previous employment or educational history. As per the INIS website where the course you now wish to study does not naturally follow on or relate to your educational or employment history, you must give reasons, supported by documentary evidence (where available), for this change. |
