- Creating and maintaining a network of contacts and stakeholders.
- Attending and reporting on conferences, briefings and other events.
- Working with the Embassy team on events and projects as required.
- Undertaking research on topical issues and events in Jordan
- Assisting with High Level visits between Ireland and Jordan
- Work flexibly with Embassy team members on agreed tasks

Essential requirements candidates must be able to demonstrate:

- Relevant post-graduate qualification is necessary.
- Candidates must be fluent in written and spoken English and Arabic
- Candidates must have experience in report writing.
- Strong knowledge of international affairs and experience of working in an international environment
- Excellent administrative and organisational skills, including proficiency in Microsoft Office suite.
- A good understanding of the role of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade;
- Excellent interpersonal and networking skills;

- Advanced communication skills, with the ability to quickly distil and synthesise complex information in writing;
- Well-developed networking and interpersonal skills, including a flexible attitude, good judgement and the ability to work effectively as part of a team.
- The ability to work well under pressure while ensuring accuracy and attention to detail.
- Relevant work experience.
- The successful candidate must have a legal entitlement to live and work in Jordan prior to recruitment.

Desirable requirements:

- Additional post-graduate qualifications will be considered an advantage.
- Proficiency in other languages will be considered an advantage.

Terms and conditions of employment:

- The successful candidates will be hired on a fixed-term contractual basis and will be based at the Embassy of Ireland in Jordan.
- The gross annual salary for the position is JOD 14,842 per annum, paid locally on a monthly basis, through electronic transfer, therefore the successful candidate must have a bank account.
