Request For Tender

For

The Provision of a Health Policy Analyst for Embassy Dar es Salaam

Tender Deadline: 30th March 2023, 18:00hrs

1. Background

The Embassy of Ireland is the current incoming chair of the Development Partners' Group on Health. Our Deputy Head of Cooperation will become the Chair on 01 July 2023 until 30 June 2024. The chairing of the DPG-Health provides an opportunity for the Embassy to position itself at the centre of health policy dialogue in Tanzania.

The Embassy of Ireland has a substantial portfolio of partnerships in health in Tanzania, focused on primary health care, sexual and reproductive health, nutrition and human resources for health. The largest investment is via the Health Basket Fund. A Health Programme Manager is responsible for the management of these partnerships and grants, supported by a Programme Officer, under the guidance of the Deputy Head of Cooperation.

Taking on the role of DPG-Health chair in addition to managing the portfolio of health grants and partnerships will bring an additional work which will require extra capacity. The Embassy proposes to procure the services of a health policy analyst for this purpose

2. Function

The health policy analyst will support the Embassy in engaging a wide range of health policy matters during the chairing of the DPG-Health. Specific tasks will include:

- Help design the annual work plan for the DPG-Health and the agenda for its monthly meetings and annual retreat
- Preparing briefings in advance of monthly DPG health meetings, bi-monthly meetings with the Permanent Secretary and annual health sector review meetings.
- Provide dedicated analysis on topical health policy issues of interest to the Embassy and the DPG-Health.
- Represent the Embassy at DPG-Health working groups.
- Engage with the DPG-Health troika, the DPG-Health secretariat (WHO) and DPG-Health memberships to solicit and compile views on policy issues.

3. Reporting line and location

The health policy analyst will work under the supervision of the Health Programme Manager. The health policy analyst will be primarily home based with weekly meeting in the Embassy of Ireland in Dar es Salaam. The role will include periodic travel to Dodoma and potentially elsewhere within Tanzania.

4. Timeframe

The health policy analyst will work from June 2023 until July 2024. She/he will be expected to work eight days per month, with potential for some seasonal variation. A work plan will be agreed on a quarterly basis.

5. Selection Criteria

The contractor should possess the following qualities:

1. Substantial, broad knowledge of health policy issues in Tanzania
2. Excellent written and spoken communication skills in English
3. Ability to distil and synthesise complex issues into succinct briefings
4. Excellent research and analysis skills

Award Criteria

The contract for the requested services will be awarded on the basis of Most Economically Advantageous Tender. Marks will be awarded according to the Award Criteria outlined below. Tenderers must score the minimum marks for criteria 1 and 2 in order to be considered for awarding of the contract.

The proposal will be evaluated against the following criteria:

General Terms and Conditions

Freedom of Information

Tenderers are advised that the Embassy is subject to the Freedom of Information \(FOI\) Act, 2014. If a Tenderer considers that any of the information supplied in their Tender response is either commercially sensitive or confidential in nature, this should be highlighted and the reasons for its sensitivity specified. In such cases the relevant material will, in response to a request under the FOI Act, be examined in the light of the exceptions provided for in the Act.

Conflict of Interest

Tenderers must disclose in their submissions details of any circumstances, including personal, financial and business activities that will, or might, give rise to any conflict of interest associated with any current or previous engagement/programme undertaken, or any relationship that may reasonably be perceived to potentially conflict or impact on their ability to participate in the Tender Process or fulfil the requirements of the engagement. This also includes any sub-contractor.

Failure to disclose a material conflict of interest may disqualify a Tenderer or cause the termination of any subsequent contract and entitle the Embassy to seek remedies, such as cost or compensation for loss.

Where Tenderers identify any potential conflicts they should state how they intend to avoid such conflicts. The Embassy reserves the right to reject any submission which, in the Embassy's opinion, gives rise, or could potentially give rise to, a conflict of interest.

Tenderers or any of their affiliates shall not be assigned any engagement which, by its nature, may be in conflict with another engagement of the Tenderer. The Embassy may accept the participation of a Tenderer that has been engaged in the preparation of a project if it can be demonstrated that no unfair advantage is given to the Tenderer and that the tendering process offers equal opportunities to all Tenderers.

Tendering Costs

The Embassy will not be liable in respect of any costs incurred by Tenderers in the preparation of tenders or any associated work effort, including the supply of equipment, where relevant, for evaluation and the return of such equipment to Tenderers, following such evaluation.

Content of Tender

Information supplied by tenders will be treated as contractually binding. However, the Embassy reserves the right to seek clarification or verification of any such information. Post-tender qualifications or revisions will not be acceptable and may invalidate the tender.

The Embassy reserves the right to update or alter the information contained in this document at any time, but not later than 7 days before the closing date of the call for tender. Participating tenders will be so informed, should the need arise.

The Embassy reserves the right to request additional information from the tenders after the closing date.

Interpretation of the Tender

It is the duty of the Tenderer to fully understand and correctly interpret this tender. At all times, the tenderer has the responsibility to notify the Embassy, in writing, of any ambiguity, divergence, error, omission, oversight, or contradiction contained in this tender, as it is discovered, or to request any instruction, decision, clarification or direction that tenderers may require to prepare a tender.

Whilst every endeavour has been made to give Tenderers an accurate description of the requirements, Tenderers should form their own conclusions about the methods and resources needed to meet these requirements. The Embassy does not accept responsibility for the Tenderers' assessment of the requirements.

Tender Acceptance or Rejection

The Embassy reserves the right to hold Tenderers strictly to the terms and conditions submitted in their tenders and also reserves the right to accept or reject in whole, or in part, any or all submissions in response to this tender. Tenderers are specifically notified that failure to comply with or respond to any part of this tender (other than those elements clearly indicated as optional) may result in rejection of their submission as non-compliant. Tenderers whose submissions are not accepted will be notified in writing on finalisation of the competition.

Right to Amend or Terminate the Tender Process

The Embassy may, in its absolute discretion:

- change the basis of, or the procedures (including the timetable) relating to the tender process;
- reject any or all of the tenders;
- invite Tenderers to proceed further at any stage of the tender process;
- furnish Tenderers with additional information in respect of any aspect of the Services; or
- abandon the tender process.

Insurance

Tenderers, if awarded a contract under this competition, shall ensure that they are adequately insured on normal and customary terms against the risks which may arise or be occasioned by the work to be carried out and in particular, shall ensure that such insurance includes (without limitation) public liability insurance and professional indemnity insurance with an adequate limit having regard to the nature and extent of such work. The successful Tenderer will furnish the Embassy upon request with copies of all such insurance policies together with evidence that all associated premiums have been duly paid up to date.

Governing Law

The work carried out by the Service Provider, irrespective of where their offices are located, shall be deemed to be carried out in Tanzania and shall be governed by the laws of Tanzania.
